

“Title”

The work plan is a document of about 2 – 3 pages length including references. It should briefly review the background of the research project. Some space should be given to the current investigations and how this research could be enhanced by visiting the chosen research group.

Formulate the aim of the visit and how this might be achieved at the visited institution.

References

List of scientific references